Ready Market Overview

Residential vs. Commercial split - by transaction volume

Residential vs. Commercial split - by sales value (AED bn)

What this means

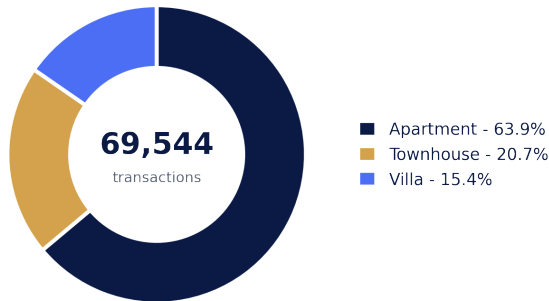

Commercial ready property punches above its weight: it's just 11.9% of ready transaction volume, but 34.2% of ready sales value. Land and office deals in particular carry far higher average ticket sizes than residential resales.

2025 ready market at a glance

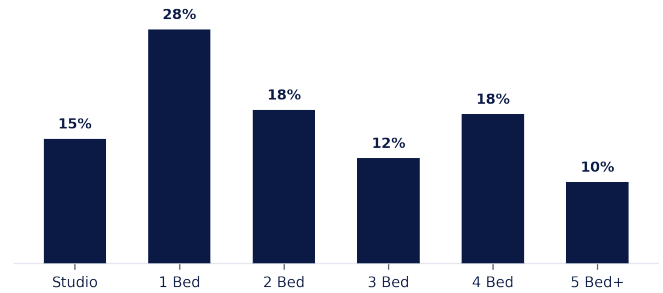

Total ready transactions	78,943
Total ready sales value	AED 382.0bn
Share of all Dubai transactions	36.9%
Residential ready transactions	69,544 (AED 251.5bn)
Commercial ready transactions	9,399 (AED 130.5bn)

Residential Ready

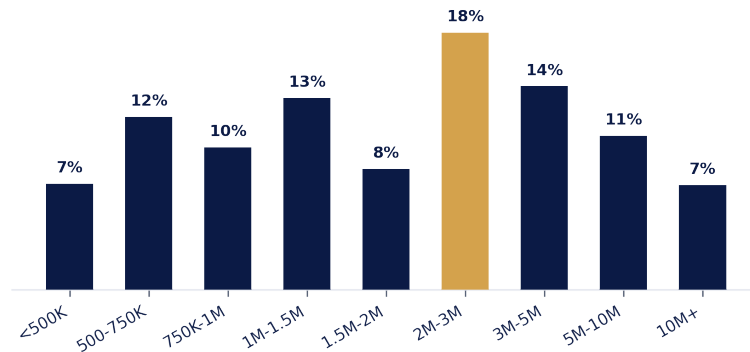

Apartment / townhouse / villa mix

Bedroom mix

Price-band mix (AED)

What this means

Ready buyers are far more villa- and townhouse-oriented than off-plan buyers (36% vs. 7% combined) and price bands are more evenly spread - the AED 2M-3M band leads, but no single band dominates the way AED 1M-1.5M does off-plan.

Residential Ready Hotspots

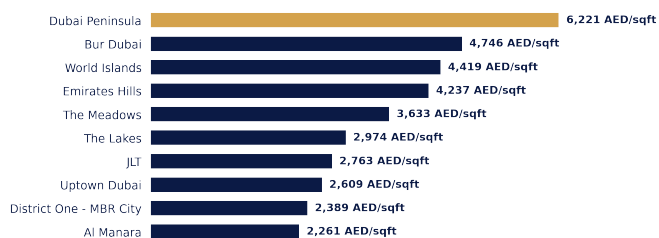

Top 10 areas by transaction volume

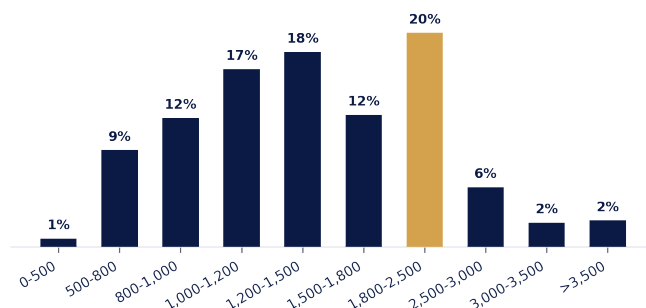

What this means

Jumeirah Village Circle and International City lead ready resale volume by a wide margin, reflecting their scale as established, affordable communities. On price per sq ft, low-density waterfront and villa enclaves like Dubai Peninsula and Bur Dubai command a significant premium over volume-driven suburban areas.

Benchmark range

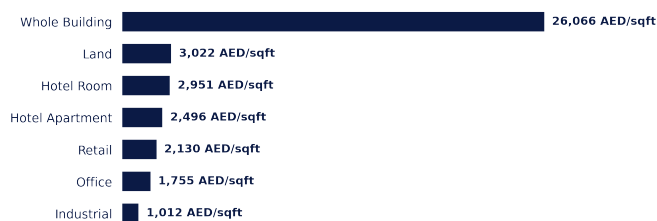

Just over half of all ready residential transactions (50.8%) trade between AED 1,200 and AED 2,500 per sq ft - a useful benchmark band when comparing listings across communities.

Commercial Ready

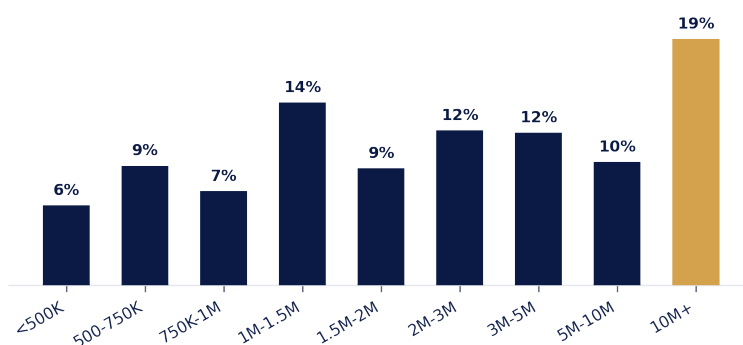

Asset type mix (by volume)

Average price per sq ft by type

Sales price mix (AED)

What this means

Offices and land together account for nearly two-thirds of commercial ready transactions. Whole buildings are the rare exception - only 402 traded in 2025 - but at an average of AED 26,066 per sq ft, they carry by far the highest price intensity of any commercial asset class.

Key Takeaways & Methodology

Key takeaways

- Ready property made up 36.9% of all Dubai transactions in 2025, with a notably larger average deal size than off-plan.

- Villas and townhouses are far more prominent in ready sales (36%) than in off-plan (7%).
- Jumeirah Village Circle and International City are the top ready resale hotspots by volume.
- Whole buildings command the highest price per sq ft of any commercial asset class, at over AED 26,000/sq ft.

Methodology & sources

Figures are compiled from six Property Monitor market analysis reports covering Dubai residential and commercial sales for the period 1 January - 31 December 2025, split by Oqood (off-plan) and Title Deed (ready) registration type. Ready totals in this report combine residential Title Deed (69,544 transactions, AED 251.5bn) and commercial Title Deed (9,399 transactions, AED 130.5bn) data. Percentages are rounded to one decimal place. Villa/townhouse price-per-sq-ft figures reflect the overall 2025 Dubai market (off-plan and ready combined) as the most complete area-level benchmark available. Area rankings reflect relative transaction volume as reported by Property Monitor; the top 10 areas are shown for clarity.
